Excerpt: . . . 11 to significantly reduce the number of duty statuses while retaining sufficient oversight and specificity to justify the budget request. While the exact number has not yet been determined, I anticipate a substantial reduction in duty statuses but it is highly unlikely, and probably not desirable that we will get to only two duty statuses as suggested by the Commission - on duty or off duty. The Secretary did not support the Commissions recommendations to remove end strength limits or to eliminate Active Duty for Operational Support. These provisions were enacted to enable Congress to monitor manpower management within the Department and they provide the Department with useful metrics to help manage the force. IV. Developing a Ready, Capable and Available Operational Reserve Developing and maintaining a ready, capable and available operational Reserve can only be accomplished if it is properly resourced. Funding an operational Reserve was one of two special interest items identified...
