SECRETS OF THE WILLIAMS CEMETERY

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 256 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.6in. Down a lonely stretch of road in rural Missouri lies a once-neglected cemetery which was founded due to tragic circumstances in 1859. This book traces the Williams family from North Carolina during the American Revolution to Missouri in the late nineteenth century, and describes what life was like for a pioneer family who suffered more than their fair share of sorrows and losses. The investigative reporter (alias noted Family Historian) Kathleen Shelby Boyett shows the joy and the pain of the Southern American settlers experience by sharing the hard-hitting truth about the ravages of the Civil War and the fate of the slaves in the Williams household. It is all part of discovering the Secrets of the Williams Cemetery. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
