Selected Stories to Tell he following stories are selected with a view to fulfilling various purposes, to meeting varied needs. Though not all are great stories, yet the object to be attained by telling them is great; for the work of molding the mind of a child can be nothing less. Each story is worth while: most of them lie outside the beaten path. The Robin s Carol This is the carol the robin throws Over the edge of the valley; Listen how boldly it flows, Sally on sally: Tirra-lirra, Down the river, Laughing water From The Angler s Reveille, by Henry van Dyke.--By permission of Charles Scribner s Sons.
