The History Press Ltd, United Kingdom, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. One of the world s most loved cruise lines, PO Cruises can trace its history back over 175 years. Through an impressive and unique collection of imagery, this book details the history of PO Cruises and explores the impact PO had in shaping the British Empire. With a vast fleet of ocean liners that undertook voyages to all parts of the globe, PO was instrumental in immigration to Australia and New Zealand, while acting as a gateway to the Far East and India. After the advent of jet aircraft, the venerable company reorganised their services to offer pleasure cruises. In Australia, PO held a near monopoly during the 1980s and `90s, with their ships Oriana and Fairstar. Today, part of the giant Carnival Corporation, PO Cruises remains an iconic brand, offering British-based cruises, world voyages and a specialist Australian subsidiary that sails into the South pacific.
